LB 177

indefinitely postponed. It has been incorporated into another bill. Senator Dworak has worked on it so it ought to die. So I would ask you to give me one last kill motion.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Did you read the motion to indefinitely postpone then? Is that your whole statement on indefinite postponement? Now discussion on indefinitely postponing LB 177.

SENATOR DWORAK: Mr. President, I see "Killer Jack" is at it again. It's kind of irritable back here, as a seat mate. I left some of my books over on his side, so he threatened to kill my bill.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Senator Dworak, I'm going to recognize you so you can carry on where you were a moment ago only on his kill motion.

SENATOR DWORAK: Mr. President, in the interest of time, I have no objection to having this particular bill killed because it has been amended into another bill and is now law so it would probably be the quickest way to dispose of it.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: How many of you want to speak on the subject of indefinite postponement? Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: No, I agree with anything those two agree on.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Senator Newell. Senator Nichol. We'll get somebody that wants to talk yet.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, the only thing I want to know is which bill is this one incorporated into so I can watch for it in the future?

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Senator Dworak, will you answer that question?

SENATOR DWORAK: Senator Nichol, this is the bill, I can't remember the bill number. I think it was 220 and it was passed and signed by the Governor last year and the only way you can watch it is through your statute book.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: The Chair recognizes Senator Stoney.

SENATOR STONEY: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, a question of Senator Mills on the kill motion.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Will you respond?

SENATOR MILLS: Yes.

SENATOR STONEY: Senator Mills, I'm always amenable to cooperating with you on the kill motion. You stated that this would be your last kill motion. Do you mean your last kill motion today, this week, this month or the remainder of the session?

SENATOR MILLS: That is correct. Today.

SENATOR STONEY: Thank you.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: The Chair recognizes Senator Marsh. All right. Senator Mills, is there any closing on your motion? All right. The motion is to indefinitely postpone LB 177. All those in favor vote aye. Opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.
